

THE HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL - INCAE PROJECT 1963 - 1966

A Report of the Program of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration for the Establishment of INCAE. Prepared by Harry M. Boon, Assistant Director, Division of International Activities

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
I. INCAE's Objectives	2
II. Initial Development Activities (1963-1965)
Background	3
The Development of Local Teaching Material	5
The Advanced Management Courses	6
The Case Method of Teaching	9
The Training of Central Americans at Harvard	9
III. Intense Development Activity (1966)
The Seminar & Short Course Program	11
The Advanced Management Course	13
The Development of Local Teaching Material	13
The Veraguas Project	16
The Training of Central Americans at Harvard	18
The Structure of a Durable Institution	19
IV. The Establishment of the Institute (1967-1969)
The Coordinated HBS/INCAE Development Plan	20
Financial Support Required	21
Harvard Technical Assistance	22
V. A Look Ahead (1970 - 1979)	23
Appendices
A. Statement of Objectives by INCAE Board	24
B. Chronological Outline of Activities	26
C. INCAE Board of Directors	31
D. Teaching Material Prepared in Central America for INCAE Programs	33
E. Teaching Materials Translated for Use in INCAE Programs	36
F. Participants in the Antigua Program	47
G. Participants in the Boquete Program	55
H. Participants in the San Salvador Program	62
I. Participants in the San José Program	70
J. Central Americans at Harvard	79